

Whitney Pavlik Goes for the Itty Bitty Bra

EVERY GIRL has gone through the struggle of searching for that “perfect bra.” It can be especially difficult to find a smaller size that provides the comfort you need to keep you feeling fabulous. Well ladies, we may have just found it. The Itty Bitty Bra is bound to be your new best friend. It even has volleyball legend Whitney Pavlik falling in love. As an athletic starlet, Pavlik’s top fashion priority is something that is a quality fit. The Itty Bitty Bra’s patented cup design guarantees a comfortable wear for women sizes 32AA to 38B. Not only are the bras stylish and form-fitting, but the brand offers a variety of camis, bras, and matching boy short styles for your exact taste. Pavlik’s favorites happen to be the Couture Bra, Removable Pad Bra, and the new Sequin Strapless Bra, which adds a fun and flirty dash of sparkle. No pinching, puckering, or grabbing – it’s almost too good to be true.
